The rewards of an ADAC membership.

Breakdown and accident assistance.

The Yellow Angels of the ADAC road patrols and the ADAC contractors are ready to help around the clock all across Germany.

Just give them a call and help is on its way. You may also request onsite ADAC assistance using the breakdown assistance app.

The roadside repair rate of the ADAC road patrols is unique: in over 84% of incidents, they successfully get you back on the road. ADAC members are often spared expensive repair and workshop calls as well as time-consuming towing services.

ADAC pays up to €300.00 in connection with a member's ADAC breakdown and accident assistance cover and up to €300.00 for towing when the services are provided by an ADAC contractor. The cover includes any storage and deposit fees required.

ADAC accident hotline 24.

Following an accident, ADAC experts will stand by and organise the help you need. Even if you require preliminary legal information or sound advice on correct behaviour at the accident site, ADAC staff is standing by to support you round the clock.

Off-road recovery.

Valuable assistance when your vehicle has swerved off the road: ADAC will cover the full cost for the vehicle's recovery by an ADAC contractor.

Help following animal collisions.

ADAC refunds expenses for damage caused to your vehicle in an animal and vehicle collision up to €300.00, unless the damage is covered under your insurance.

Legal advice.

ADAC members facing legal problems to do with their vehicle, road traffic and travelling, have an ace up their sleeve: an initial consultation with a club lawyer or an ADAC-appointed lawyer comes at no cost.

“Against the clock and for your life”. ADAC air rescue.

ADAC air rescue is a registered charity and subsidiary of ADAC e.V. Its armed helicopters are part of the German rescue services network and called out via the 112 emergency call number. This means: help by ADAC air rescue is not restricted to ADAC members. Instead its helicopters are there to help anyone injured or ill.

A definite advantage – vehicle checks.

ADAC members can have their brakes, shock absorbers and lighting checked for free at an ADAC inspection centre or third-party contractor.

Stay informed with ADAC Motorwelt.

ADAC members receive the monthly club magazine free – via home delivery, as an e-magazine via email, or as a tablet app with additional features. A new app for smartphones delivers daily news.

Top advice from the ADAC experts.

ADAC experts offer competent advice on all matters related to car or motorcycle costs. You can have them check your repair invoices.

"Those were the most difficult days of my life and I felt at a complete loss. But luckily, I have an ADAC Plus membership."

A diving accident in the Maldives.

While diving, Heike R. seriously injures her eyes. "I was very much afraid I was going to lose my eyesight", was her first reaction.

Dazed, she drifts in the waves. At long last, her boyfriend also surfaces. He immediately realises the gravity of the situation. The pain is almost intolerable for Heike R. Luckily, she has an ADAC Plus membership.

The same day, her boyfriend alerts the ADAC assistance call centre in Munich. Immediate repatriation to Germany is organised. Soon after undergoing surgery in a specialised German hospital, Heike R. gets the good news: she is going to be able to see.
